16 August 2017.

Press Release.

Staff, councillors and members of the KwaZulu Natal Law Society saddened by the loss of Nic Swart, chief executive officer of the Law Society of South Africa.

It was with great sadness that the staff, councillors and members of the KwaZulu Natal Law Society learnt of the death of Nic Swart on the 10th August 2017 in Gaborone, Botswana, whilst attending the SADC lawyers conference.

Nic served the attorneys profession for several years, as a director of legal education and development (LEAD) and as its chief executive officer.

He was committed to the improvement of the attorney's profession and especially young attorneys who were entering the profession.

His wise counsel will be missed by all who worked with him.

We extend our condolences to his wife Mariette Swart and his two daughters.

Umesh Jivan.

President of the KwaZulu Natal Law Society
